VITAL INSIGHT NAMES INDUSTRY VETERAN TO ADVISORY BOARD

Austin, Texas – January 10, 2007 – Mr. Greg Fitzgerald has recently accepted an appointment to serve on Vital Insight’s Advisory Board. Mr. Fitzgerald has over seventeen years experience in high tech software, networking, wireless and security industries. He is currently Vice President, Global Field and Channel Marketing at TippingPoint Technologies, a division of 3Com, where he is responsible for world wide corporate positioning, promotions, messaging, and business development through distributors, resellers and large System Integrators. Previously, Fitzgerald held other vice presidential positions at TippingPoint including product management, product marketing and sales. Prior to TippingPoint, Fitzgerald served as vice president of marketing for Traq-wireless, an industry leader in wireless management solutions. Prior to joining Traq-wireless, Fitzgerald was the director of worldwide marketing at BMC Software, a leading provider of enterprise management solutions, and held various leadership positions at Compaq Computer Corp., The Coca Cola Co. and Wachovia Bank. Mr. Fitzgerald is also a current professor of entrepreneurial marketing at ACTON MBA in Austin, Texas.

“Vital Insight’s Sarbanes-Oxley solution is ahead of the rest of the industry in its comprehensiveness, simplicity and ease of use when compared to what is currently available in maintaining compliance”, said Fitzgerald. “Vital Insight’s deep domain experience is paramount to creating its powerful yet easy-to-use tool; I am extremely excited to be able to offer my experience and advice regarding the company’s effort to match customer needs/wants with solution features, positioning and sales channels.

Alan White, President and CEO of Vital Insight commented: "Having someone of Greg’s caliber on our advisory board is a definite advantage for us”, “his experience with marketing and establishing channel programs will help guide us as we grow the company, we’re very pleased to have him join our advisory board”.
